ETTSA appoints a new Secretary General

Brussels, 4 September 2018

The European Travel and Technology Services Association (ETTSA) is delighted to announce the appointment of Emmanuel Mounier as its new Secretary General, replacing Christoph Klenner. Mr Mounier has taken up the position as of September 3rd.

Prior to his appointment, Mr Mounier was attaché for industrial affairs at the French Permanent Representation to the EU. A graduate of the University of Kent at Canterbury and Université Paris I la Sorbonne, Mr Mounier brings a wealth of EU-specific expertise in many different fields including transport, internal market, digital single market, and trade.

“ETTSA members are e-commerce pioneers and continue to be the gold standard when it comes to providing consumers with transparent, unbiased, and relevant access to the global travel marketplace,” said Simon Gros, Chairman of ETTSA. “Emmanuel joins us at a time of challenge and opportunity. We are confident that he will ably guide us through our busy European agenda.”

Emmanuel will be based in Brussels and will represent the interests of ETTSA and its members vis-a-vis European policy makers, industry stakeholders, consumer groups, and the media.

Finally, the ETTSA Board would like to thank Christoph Klenner for his hard work and great achievements during his 9 year tenure as ETTSA Secretary General. The Board wishes him every success in his new endeavour.
